Women Have Always Wanted

It is the last thing in the world the men want to do, of course! Woman's place is quietly in the home, so most men say, at least.

Men have put women on dress parade!

It's the last thing in the world the men want to do, of course! Woman's place is quietly in the home, so most men say, at least.

But the masculine geniuses who invented and perfected the automobile, virtually put women on dress parade!

You see, they gave men and women facilities never dreamed of, for getting about, seeing and being seen by the world. Did you know that today in this prosperous America of ours there's a car for two out of every three families?

Bigger and wider horizons for women!

These automobiles have given you women a thousand-and-one new social contacts. When you craved a neighborly chat in the old days, you ran across the street. Today you pay calls anywhere within a radius of fifty miles! You meet the other women at study clubs and civic conferences and political rallies. You go to luncheons and bridges and country club dances.

And oh, so much more than ever, you have to keep on dress parade! More than ever you need those exquisite personal things that keep a woman from looking—and feeling—drab and frumpy. The gloves of English doeskin squarely hand-stitched; the necklets of pellucid crystal or creamy ivory; the scarfs of subtly shaded chiffon. . . . Beautiful in themselves, they endow you with beauty! They give you that delicious inner sense of charm, that poise, that makes you more charming, gayer, younger! And after all—charm, youth, aren't these what the world expects of women?

Camay—so new! Charming! Exquisite in its purity!

That is just why Camay has been made for you—you and the beauty-loving modern girls like you whose quick approval has made Camay most popular among all white perfumed soaps. You prize subtly refined quality. Camay is made from essences of the world's finest oils.

Rob the white cake between your fingers—see what velvety, creamy lather foams up, even if the water is hard, even if it's cold! Now plunge your hands and face in the buoyant, sparkling bubbles. Feel how sweetly they cleanse. Your skin seems so smooth, so supple and refreshed. And, oh, how very long this lovely white cake of Camay lasts!

Fragrance sweet as flowers after rain

And don't you like Camay's light, elusive perfume? Sweet and fresh as flowers after rain, as the very spirit of Youth!

You'll want to try Camay right away—it's so delightful. If you wish a free cake, simply send your request with your name and address to The Procter & Gamble Co., Dept. A1, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Otherwise, look for Camay's dainty wrapper on your grocer's shelf of fine toilet soaps, at your druggist's or your department store. See a cake, a low price for a fragrant soap as exquisite as Camay.

CAMAY—why this sweeping triumph?

The makers of Camay have produced far more fine soap than any other soap makers in America. In Camay they offer you a white fragrant soap; a soap so lovely that, wherever it goes, it wins almost instant triumph. How do they make it?

From Ceylon, from Java, from India, indeed, from every continent except Australia the makers of Camay gather the choicest fats and oils. By delicate processes which they alone thoroughly
